

Summary:

The Croatian Competition Agency (CCA) received the request from the Ministry of the Economy, Entrepreneurship and Crafts seeking the opinion of the CCA regarding the compliance of the proposed Draft Act on State Aid for Research and Development Projects with competition rules.

Following the legal analysis, the CCA issued the opinion in which it raised no objections to the proposed piece of legislation within the meaning of the Competition Act and the Act on Regulatory Impact Assessment.